

 The logo for Instant Apostle, featuring the words "instant" and "apostle" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font. The "o" in "apostle" is a square with a white outline. The logo is set against a blue background that is tilted upwards from left to right.

COMPLETE CATALOGUE

Instant Apostle is a pioneering publishing house that exists to inspire followers of Jesus and promote the values of His Kingdom in the world!

Instant Apostle was founded to publish books by writers who are passionate about addressing diverse social issues from a Kingdom perspective – in any and every genre! Whether it is faith-building autobiography, riveting fiction, engaging study in Christian mindfulness or compassionate response to mental health problems, if a book is well written, original and authentic you will find it with us. We want to share Kingdom values with everyone, and publish titles that cross into secular markets, particularly in adults' and children's fiction.

Instant Apostle books engage with varied and poignant subjects, from child sex-trafficking and autism to the plight of asylum seekers and the challenges of young people growing up in the social media age. These are books by informed, creative and sometimes opinionated people that demolish stale paradigms and foster faith in Jesus! Working with established writers and actively welcoming new authors, Instant Apostle seeks out prophetic voices that will change the way readers young and old understand God's Kingdom and see the world! Are you ready to join us?

Share the passion.

Get reading.

Get writing.

Get published!

ADDRESS:

Instant Apostle Ltd
104A The Drive
Rickmansworth
WD3 4DU
Tel: 07973 347 675
info@instantapostle.com
www.instantapostle.com

TRADE ORDERS:

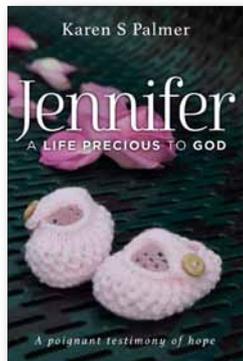

Lion Sales Services Ltd
c/o Marston Book Services Ltd
160 Milton Park Estate
Abingdon
OX14 4YN
Tel: 01235 465500
Fax: 01235 465555
Christian bookshops hotline:
01235 465511

 A small version of the Instant Apostle logo, tilted upwards from left to right, located in the bottom right corner of the page.

CHRISTIAN LIFE

Jennifer: A Life Precious to God

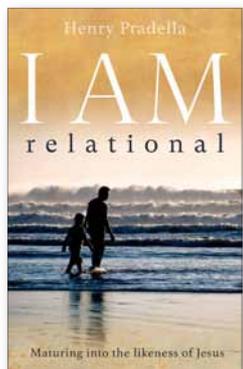

A poignant testimony of hope
KAREN PALMER
 978-1-912726-27-1
 RRP £8.99
 JULY 2020

When Karen and Gordon are asked how many children they have, they tell people two – it’s just easier that way. But the truth is that there will always be three... Their first child, Jennifer Grace, was discovered to have multiple abnormalities before birth and she died hours after being born. Sharing their struggles and doubts, Jennifer’s parents show how her short life blessed many lives, and give rich testimony to God’s goodness and intimate care for us all.

I AM Relational

Maturing into the likeness of Jesus
HENRY PRADELLA
 978-1-912726-24-0
 RRP £8.99
 JUNE 2020

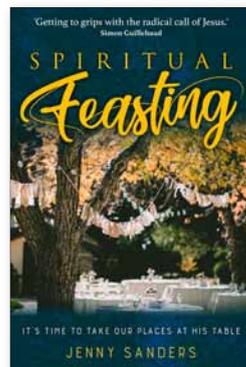

In our fast-changing and increasingly pressured world, we can easily forget who we are and what we were created for. Yet grasping our core relational identity as children of God and maturing into deeper relationship with Him – and with one another – are fundamental to our discipleship and well-being. With a rich blend of biblical teaching, personal insights and heartfelt testimonies, Henry invites us into a journey of discovery and encounter.

Spiritual Feasting

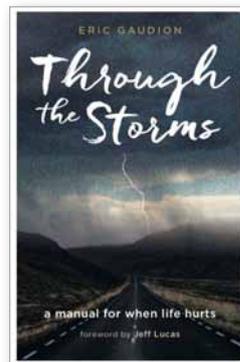

It’s time to take our places at His table
JENNY SANDERS
 978-1-912726-22-6
 RRP £8.99
 MAY 2020

Are you spiritually satisfied or hungering for more? Psalm 23 pictures the Father preparing a table where we can feast with Him, victorious in the presence of our enemies. An innovative guide, Spiritual Feasting encourages us to take our assigned places, to enjoy spiritual nourishment and to engage with the Holy Spirit as we eat. The ‘menu’ may not always be to our taste, but the exquisite privilege of dining with Jesus can turn even a bitter ‘dish’ into a feast. It’s time to stop snacking and to start feasting!

Through the Storms

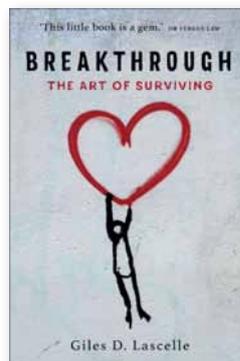

A manual for when life hurts
ERIC GAUDION
 978-1-912726-17-2
 RRP £8.99
 FEBRUARY 2020

After more than twenty years battling pancreatitis – one of the most painful disorders known – Eric Gaudion shares how he reconciled his faith and his condition. An Elim Pentecostal pastor with a healing ministry, he faced searing doubts and had to dig deep into God to survive. With profound honesty and gentleness, Eric offers precious encouragements and hope-filled strategies to sustain and inspire all those touched by long-term struggles that seem resistant to prayer.

Breakthrough

The Art of Surviving
GILES D. LASCELLE
 ISBN 978-1-912726-14-1
 RRP £8.99
 OCTOBER 2019

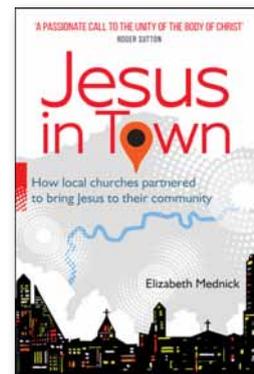

Is it possible to have a full and abundant life when abuse has shattered your childhood, and you are still struggling with the effects? Written by an abuse survivor, ordained minister and qualified psychotherapist, this book shows how it is possible to break through to a place of freedom, peace and joy. An accessible and powerful resource, Breakthrough guides survivors in the art of recovery, informs those who love them, and shows how churches can respond.

Jesus in Town

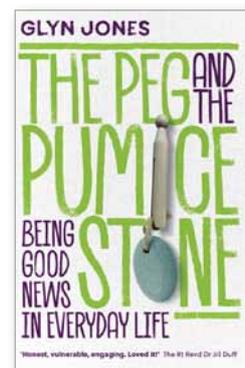

How local churches partnered to bring Jesus to their community
ELIZABETH MEDNICK
 ISBN 978-1-912726-02-8
 RRP £8.99
 APRIL 2019

This is the remarkable story of what happened when the churches of Barking and Dagenham were inspired to come together to serve their borough. Fuelled by prayer, and committed to overcoming the challenges of collective work, they found amazing doors open for vital community ministry and fruitful partnerships with the civic and business worlds.

The Peg and the Pumice Stone

Being Good News in Everyday Life
GLYN JONES
 ISBN 978-1-912726-00-4
 RRP £7.99
 MARCH 2019

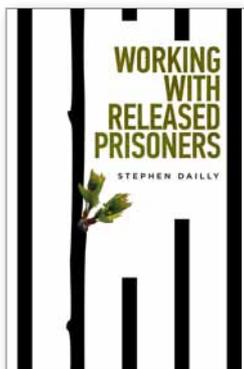

Do you long to share what Jesus is really like, but struggle to know how? Do you feel like a weak link when it comes to evangelism? And do you wonder what a peg and a pumice stone could have to do with it all? Then this is a book for you!

Working with Released Prisoners

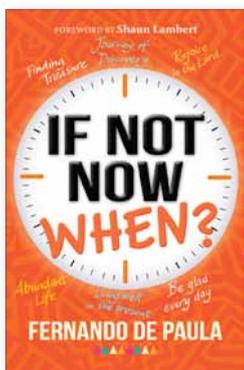

STEPHEN DAILLY
ISBN 978-1-909728-96-7
RRP £8.99
FEBRUARY 2019

Every year, thousands of Christians are released from prison. Christians just like you and me. How can we, the church, support them as they seek to re-enter society? How can we help them move forward with their faith? What unique factors do we need to be aware of and what precautions should we take? Working with Released Prisoners will encourage Christians to question their preconceptions about those coming out of prison and show them how they can make a difference to their lives.

If Not Now, When?

FERNANDO DE PAULA
ISBN 978-1-909728-99-8
RRP £8.99
FEBRUARY 2019

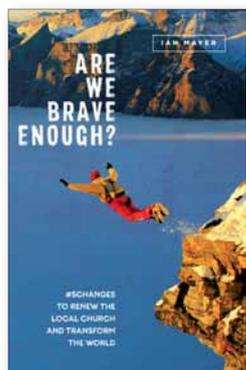

Is your life dominated by pressures of the past or the future?

Then it's time to begin a journey into living differently.

This timely, inspirational and motivational book encourages us to stop living in the past, and to learn to live 'in the now', trusting our anxiety and future to God.

Are We Brave Enough?

#5 changes to renew the local church and transform the world
IAN MAYER
ISBN 978-1-909728-97-4
RRP £ 7.99
JANUARY 2019

Are We Brave Enough? asks Christians to consider doing five things that could change the landscape of local church communities, and help Christians become more effective in transforming the world.

Simply Eat

Everyday Stories of Friendship, Food and Faith
ANN CLIFFORD
ISBN 978-1-909728-94-3
RRP £15.00
SEPTEMBER 2018

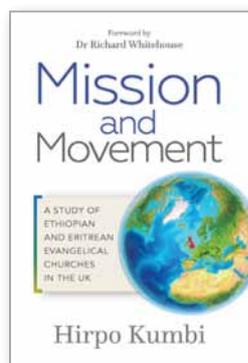

When we come together to eat, we discover our shared humanity and find that our spiritual as well as our physical needs can be met. From a missionary midwife to a former Hindu priest, and from a poetic schoolgirl to a celebrity chef, Simply Eat is an inspirational collection of stories and recipes celebrating the power of food and faith.

Mission and Movement

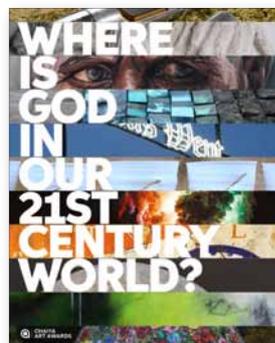

A Study of Ethiopian and Eritrean Evangelical Churches in the UK
HIRPO KUMBI
ISBN 978-1-909728-89-9
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2018

How can immigrant and refugee churches move from cultural preservation to cross-cultural mission? By charting the history of the Ethiopian and Eritrean church in the UK, Hirpo Kumbi, an experienced church-planter and cross-cultural missionary, shows how this transition can be made.

Where is God in our 21st-century World?

ANN CLIFFORD
ISBN 978-1-909728-90-5
RRP £15.00
SEPTEMBER 2018

The accompanying book to the first of the new theme-based biennial Chaiya Art Awards, a major new art award with a top prize of £10,000, this beautiful large format gift book showcases art by those of all faiths and none, with editorial content conveying Christian themes and God's love to a world that desperately needs to know Him.

A Guide to the End of the World

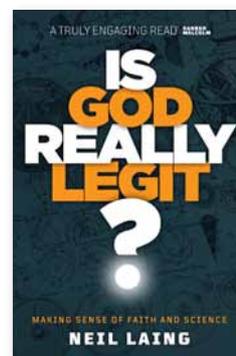

Rapture? Millennium? Heaven?
PETE LOWMAN
ISBN 978-1-909728-85-1
RRP £8.99
MAY 2018

Will I be 'raptured'? Will there be an 'antichrist'? What might heaven be like? And did someone mention a 'Millennium'?? Pete Lowman skilfully tackles all these questions and more! Guiding us through the biblical end-time prophecies, he reflects on how these glorious, terrifying and perplexing visions might find fulfilment in our post-modern world.

Is God Really Legit?

Making Sense of Faith and Science
NEIL LAING
ISBN 978-1-909728-83-7
RRP £8.99
MARCH 2018

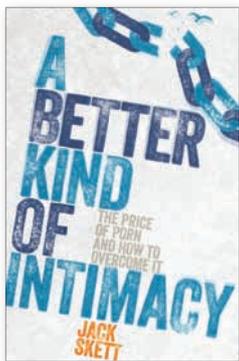

God and science – you can't really believe in both, right...? Or can you?? Is God Really Legit? asks the tough questions and gives you the info you need to decide. Do miracles happen? Is the earth 6,000 years old? What about the Big Bang? Who is God? And where? Is it creationism or evolution? Why Genesis 1? Is faith blind? What is 'faith' anyway?

Written for a teen / young adult audience, but suitable for all.

A Better Kind of Intimacy

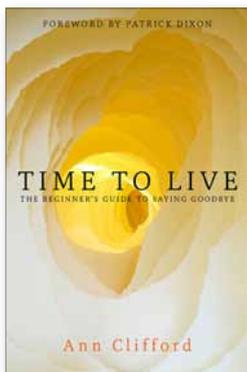

The Price of Porn and How to Overcome It
 JACK SKETT
 ISBN 978-1-909728-81-3
 RRP £8.99
 JANUARY 2018

Porn is everywhere – but does it have a cost? Born out of the author's own struggles, A Better Kind of Intimacy shares Jack's testimony of being set free from porn addiction by Christ. Offering practical advice on dealing with porn and supporting others struggling with it, this is a perfect book to read as a small group or with an accountability partner.

Time to Live

The Beginner's Guide to Saying Goodbye
 ANN CLIFFORD
 ISBN 978-1-909728-68-4
 RRP £8.99
 SEPTEMBER 2017

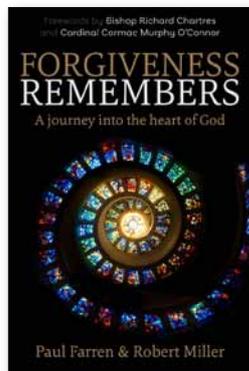

How we leave this life will be our final word to those we love – yet how many of us will be ready? In Time to Live, Ann Clifford explores the issues around facing death with faith. A gentle and friendly companion, she sensitively encourages conversations around the one certainty we avoid talking about.

Written in two parts, Time to Live supportively addresses both the personal and practical elements dying involves, and how we can prepare for them. Acknowledging the pain and confusion that inevitably accompany loss, Ann looks forward with joy to the Christian hope of life to come.

Forgiveness Remembers

A Journey Into the Heart of God
 PAUL FAREN AND ROBERT MILLER
 ISBN 978-1-909728-67-7
 RRP £6.99
 JULY 2017

'Forgive and forget' is the mantra. But what if the path to true peace were 'forgive and remember'?

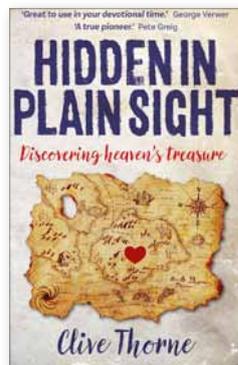

This is the radical and liberating truth shared by two authors who bridge the Catholic-Protestant divide. Together they show that true forgiveness lies the other side of grace-filled remembering and not denial-laden forgetting.

This book is for anyone who struggles with forgiveness, with a grace that can seem so unfair, but who hopes to know God's grace and to continue the journey into His heart.

Hidden in Plain Sight

Discovering Heaven's Treasures
 CLIVE THORNE
 ISBN 978-1-909728-64-6
 RRP £6.99
 JULY 2017

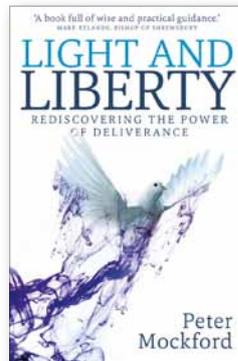

Where does your treasure lie? What is it that makes you come alive?

Jesus said that the Kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field – a treasure so precious that when someone finds it, they will gladly sell all their other 'treasures' to get it. What is it that makes it so precious?

In this rich devotional work, Clive Thorne considers the unique nature and worth of the Kingdom of heaven and what we must do to obtain it.

Light and Liberty

Rediscovering the Power of Deliverance
 PETER MOCKFORD
 ISBN 978-1-909728-63-9
 RRP £8.99
 JULY 2017

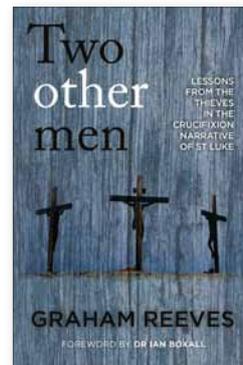

As western awareness of spirituality increases, deliverance ministry will be critical to the church's mission and future success. Peter Mockford offers profound and grounded insights into the realities of spiritual warfare and an understanding of how the church can rediscover this oft-forgotten part of the gospel.

Two Other Men

Lessons from the thieves in the crucifixion narrative of St Luke
 GRAHAM REEVES
 ISBN 978-1-909728-59-2
 RRP £8.99
 FEBRUARY 2017

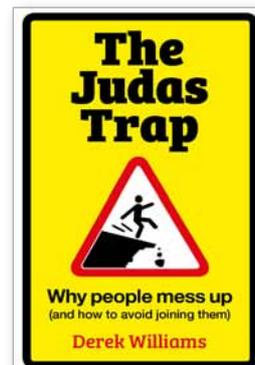

All four Gospels tell of Jesus being crucified between two thieves, but only St Luke records the words of these other men. Why does he include these exchanges? What makes these unknown, dying men worth remembering?

Time and again in Luke's gospel, Jesus displays the mercy of God to those who feel themselves unworthy of love. What do these interactions between two criminals tell us about God's love? And what can we conclude about the impenitent thief?

The Judas Trap

Why people mess up (and how to avoid joining them)
 DEREK WILLIAMS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-54-7
 RRP £8.99

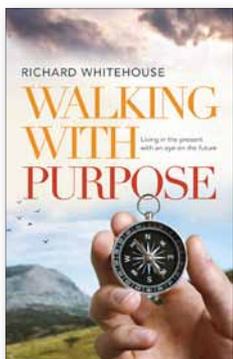

The Judas Trap explores the factors that contributed to Judas Iscariot's infamous 'mess-up' – betraying Jesus Christ – and applies the lessons to our lives today. Any one of us can stumble into the 'Judas trap', messing up our own life and the lives of others. Drawing on a wide range of cases and insights from varied disciplines and from the Bible, Derek Williams investigates how people can be seduced into distressing actions and recommends positive ways of reacting to others' errors and coping with our own.

The Judas Trap offers ways to develop a Christian mind that will help make our world a better place – one where fewer people mess up!

Walking with Purpose

Living in the present with an eye on the future
 RICHARD WHITEHOUSE
 ISBN 978-1-909728-47-9
 RRP £8.99

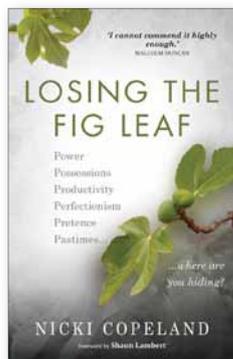

Every believer will face many challenges and opportunities, but it is essential to never lose sight of the goal of our faith. Taking wisdom from the giants of the faith who have gone before and who invite us to join the journey toward God, Richard Whitehouse offers us tools and guidance to see us purposefully press on to the end.

A practical guide to living in the present with an eye on the future, in the company of those who have gone before.

Losing the Fig Leaf

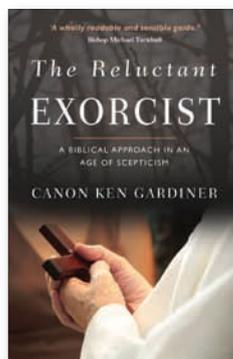

Power, possessions, productivity, perfectionism, pretence, pastimes... where are you hiding?
 NICKI COPELAND
 ISBN 978-1-909728-32-5
 RRP £8.99

When God's perfect image in Adam and Eve was distorted, and their freedom lost, they tried to hide from God and from each other, among the trees and with coverings of fig leaves. Nicki Copeland considers how we still hide today – behind the six Ps of power and possessions, productivity and perfectionism, pretence and pastimes. Drawing on biblical wisdom and personal experience, she offers practical ways to throw off your fig leaves, come out from among the trees and embrace the abundant life God offers!

The Reluctant Exorcist

A biblical approach in an age of scepticism
 CANON KEN GARDINER
 ISBN 978-1-909728-31-8
 RRP £8.99

For most people their only encounter with the ministry of exorcism is through sensational books and films, but when the need for it arises in real life it is important that it is conducted confidently and competently. However, the opportunity for training in this field is limited. Ken Gardiner, an Anglican priest with more than 30 years of experience in this area, shares what he has learned for the benefit of those who find themselves involved in setting people free from the influence of the occult.

The Returning King

Is God preparing Israel for the Messiah?
 CLARE LAMBERT
 ISBN 978-1-909728-33-2
 RRP £8.99

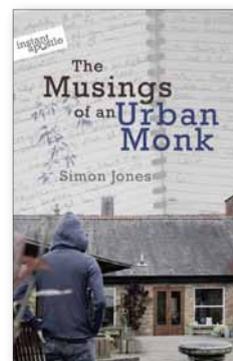

Are the Jewish people still part of God's plan? Does the land of Israel figure in Christ's return? Has Jesus' second coming slipped off the Church's radar?

When Clare Lambert visited Israel for the first time, she could not have imagined the revelations that would follow. Encountered by God, she was made to reconsider everything she thought she knew about Christ's return and the Lord's continuing purposes for Israel. Sharing her experiences, Clare invites the reader to look afresh at their own beliefs and their understanding of current events in the Middle East.

The Musings of an Urban Monk

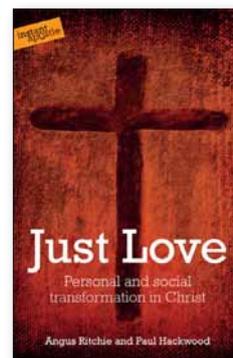

SIMON JONES
 ISBN 978-1-909728-18-9
 RRP £8.99

A series of writings to take you on a journey into the Father's love, revealing that maybe, just maybe, it's OK to rest. They come out of a life of prayer and are written in an atmosphere of prayer, drawing on wisdom ancient and modern, often surprising as much with their powerful simplicity as they do with their profound understanding.

Just Love

Personal and Social Transformation in Christ
 ANGUS RITCHIE AND PAUL HACKWOOD
 ISBN 978-1-909728-13-4
 RRP £8.99

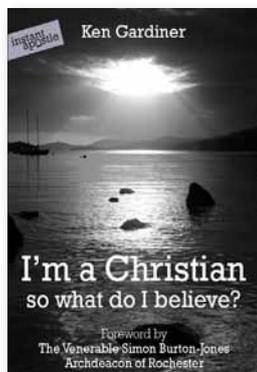

Might love be far more controversial – far more disruptive – than we think? Jesus was the only human to love perfectly. His love included friend and foe and was the cause of His death.

Just Love uses the Gospel readings for Lent to explore how Jesus loved, and why this love led Him to the cross. It draws out the implications of His transforming love for our individual lives, for our life as a community and even for our economic order.

I'm a Christian – so what do I believe?

KEN GARDINER
ISBN 978-0-9559135-9-4
RRP £9.99

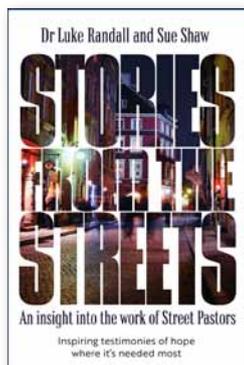

Ken Gardiner has a passion for Jesus Christ and a passion for truth. Drawing on his rich life experiences of God and his deep biblical knowledge, he invites us to re-examine the essence of the Christian faith.

Join Ken as he shares his insight and passion for a God who has continually surprised him, ever revealing Himself, in the mundane as well as the profound, to be far more wonderful than he could have ever begun to imagine.

MISSION AND LEADERSHIP

Stories from the Streets

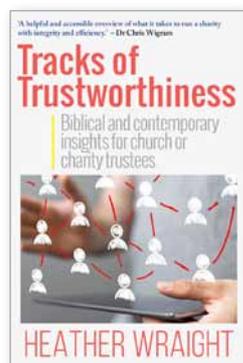

An insight into the work of Street Pastors
LUKE RANDALL AND SUE SHAW
978-1-912726-28-8
NOVEMBER 2020
RRP £9.99

Would you volunteer to walk the streets of your town or city late on a Saturday night? This is what Street Pastors do, showing compassionate care and concern to everyone they meet. Whether helping a vulnerable clubber, mentoring a troubled teen or responding to a national emergency, Street Pastors are impacting communities across the UK and beyond. With incredible and in some cases life-saving stories, this book celebrates their work, dispelling the myth that the Church is not relevant today.

Tracks of Trustworthiness

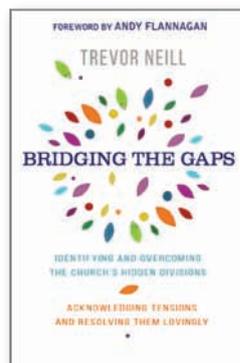

Biblical and contemporary insights for church or charity trustees
HEATHER WRAIGHT
978-1-912726-29-5
OCTOBER 2020
RRP £10.99

Are you a charity trustee or PCC member? Fulfilling such legal roles with skill and integrity can feel a daunting task – but this need not be the case. Sharing from her own and others' experience, and looking at the administrative gifts of Nehemiah and Daniel, Heather Wraight shows us how being a Christian trustee need not be a burden to carry but a privilege to fulfil.

Bridging the Gaps

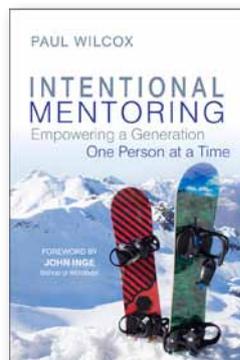

Identifying and overcoming our Church's hidden divisions
TREVOR NEILL
978-1-912726-15-8
RRP £8.99
JANUARY 2020

Are there gaps between what we believe and what we do? Does society influence us more than our theology? Why are churches often places of stress and strain rather than peace and renewal? Trevor Neill shines a compassionate light on the hidden and often unacknowledged contradictions of the contemporary UK Church – but with a passionate confidence in God and His people, Trevor shows how we can fill in the gaps one person and one church at a time.

Intentional Mentoring

Empowering a Generation One Person at a Time
PAUL WILCOX
ISBN 978-1-909728-80-6
RRP £8.99
JANUARY 2018

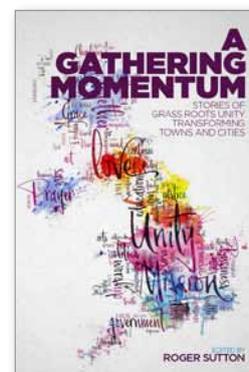

Mentoring... it's discipleship with a kick!

As a mentor with more than twenty years' experience, Paul Wilcox is well placed to explore the construction process that is involved in making disciples, and also the personal journey of the mentor. Riddled with dos and don'ts, top tips and pointed questions to aid reflection, Intentional Mentoring shines a light on these precious relationships and gives confidence to those who just don't know where to start.

A Gathering Momentum

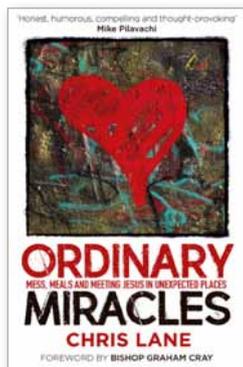

Stories of Christian Unity Transforming Our Towns and Cities
ROGER SUTTON
ISBN 978-1-909728-75-2
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2017

A quiet reformation is gathering momentum across the UK and the world... Church leaders from across the denominational spectrum are coming together in friendship and prayer to seek God's will for their towns and cities – and transformation is occurring! This inspirational collection of stories, of Christians initiating cultural, social and spiritual transformation in the places they love, will encourage and amaze.

Ordinary Miracles

Mess, Meals and Meeting Jesus in Unexpected Places
CHRIS LANE
ISBN 978-1-909728-76-9
RRP £8.99
AUGUST 2017

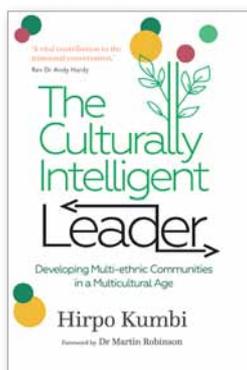

An inspiring story of mess, meals and miracles! When Chris Lane and his friends planted a church in an estate infamous for crime and deprivation, they could not imagine the roller coaster ride that awaited.

Committed to loving and living in one place – the Langworthy estate in Salford – they have spent eighteen years seeing Jesus’ hope and healing transforming even the darkest and most desperate situations. At the heart of Ordinary Miracles is an understanding of Jesus’ meal table, and how Langworthy Community Church has seen the most unlikely people welcomed into Jesus’ Kingdom as they share at His table and invite others to do the same.

The Culturally Intelligent Leader

Developing Multi-ethnic Communities in a Multicultural Age
HIRPO KUMBI
ISBN 978-1-909728-73-8
RRP £8.99
AUGUST 2017

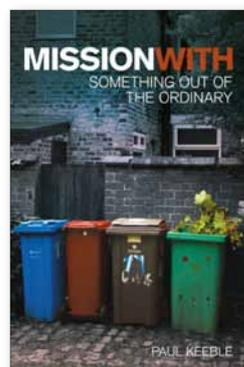

What kind of leader is needed in a multicultural, multi-ethnic age? What is cultural intelligence and why is it essential to the future growth of the church? Why may third-culture children be the ablest leaders of tomorrow?

In The Culturally Intelligent Leader, Hirpo Kumbi offers thought-provoking, practical answers to all these questions and more.

Mission With

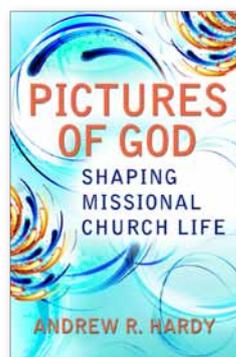

Something out of the ordinary
PAUL KEEBLE
ISBN 978-1-909728-60-8
RRP £8.99
MARCH 2017

Paul Keeble shares his story of living for more than thirty years in a deprived, inner-city community, not as a missionary but as a permanent resident and neighbour. God has evolved his thinking from ‘mission to’ and ‘mission for’ towards what he calls ‘mission with’ – an incarnational model that takes mission beyond events and projects and into everyday life.

Pictures of God

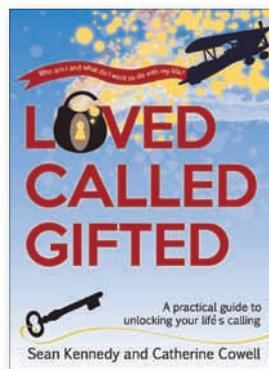

Shaping missional church life
ANDREW R HARDY
ISBN 978-1-909728-40-0
RRP £9.99

It is essential for us to understand the triune community at the heart of God when seeking to share the gospel. A vision of the love-fuelled, communal life of Father, Son and Holy Spirit can reshape church DNA and empower us to take that depth of community into the secular spheres around us. This communal, relational incarnation of the love and heart of the Trinity will present an enticing picture of God to the world around us.

Loved Called Gifted

A practical guide to unlocking your life's calling
SEAN KENNEDY AND CATHERINE COWELL
ISBN 978-1-909728-34-9
RRP £12.99

What would it be like to have a deeper sense of motivation and purpose?

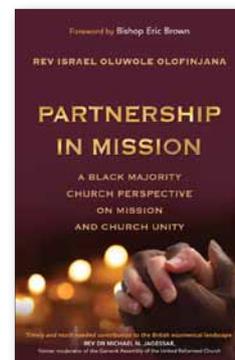

Sadly, many people don't know who they are, what they are good at or what they want to do. But it does not have to be that way!

This book takes you on a journey to discover the trail of evidence God has already left for you about who you are, what you are really good at, what motivates you and what He wants you to do with your life. The good news you will discover is that you are truly loved, called and gifted!

The book contains a fast-track reading system for those wanting to quickly get to the key information and tools.

Partnership in Mission

A Black Majority Church perspective on mission and church unity
ISRAEL OLUWOLE
OLOFINJANA
ISBN 978-1-909728-35-6
RRP £7.99

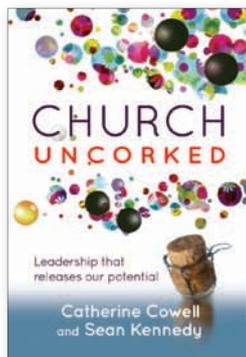

What is the Black Majority Church? How heterogeneous is the movement? What opportunities are there for partnership with the wider church?

Black Majority Churches have played a significant role in the history of the British church, encompassing a wide range of theologies, structures, missiologies, cultures and ethnicities. This heritage and rich diversity mean they have an essential contribution to make to the church's future mission in Britain.

This book challenges us to rethink our missiology in light of Britain's fast-changing social landscape. How can Black Majority Churches and other groups partner to effect institutional change in our culturally and ethnically diverse society?

Church Uncorked

Leadership that releases our potential
 CATHERINE COWELL AND
 SEAN KENNEDY
 ISBN 978-1-909728-28-8
 RRP £12.99

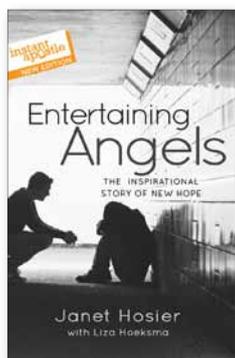

Church Uncorked challenges the predominant model of church leadership. It asks: Why do we lead the way we do? Is it working? Is it as biblical as we think it is? This book suggests an alternative where vision comes not from the top, but from everyone, and releases the wealth of untapped talent and potential that often goes unnoticed. And it provides hard evidence that this approach works.

Written engagingly and with humour and full of practical leadership tools, Church Uncorked presents a genuinely fresh perspective.

Entertaining Angels

The inspirational story of New Hope
 JANET HOSIER AND LIZA
 HOEKSMAN
 ISBN 978-1-909728-26-4
 RRP £9.99

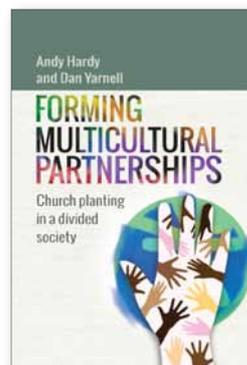

Entertaining Angels is about the desire of two ordinary women to make a difference. Their obedience and response to the needs around them led to experiences beyond their wildest imaginings. They answered God's call and witnessed His faithfulness and abundant provision in amazing and miraculous ways as they sought to reach out to the homeless in their town. Lives were dramatically turned around as many who found themselves on the brink of despair were given hope and a future – a reason to live again.

This story will challenge you, inspire you and encourage you that you, too, can make a difference in your corner of the world.

Forming Multicultural Partnerships

Church planting in a divided society
 ANDY HARDY AND DAN
 YARNELL
 ISBN 978-1-909728-24-0
 RRP £14.99

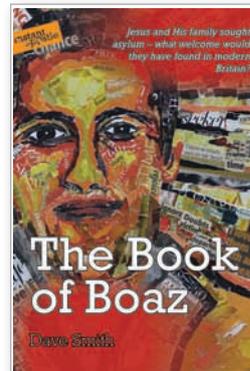

For the Church to be relevant to a culturally and ethnically diverse Britain it cannot be separated along these lines. There is a prophetic call on Christians to partner together and see God's heart to unite all nations. By planting multi-ethnic churches and forming multicultural partnerships, God's kingdom of people from every culture and nation will begin to emerge and impact our divided society.

This book is full of practical applications and theological insights for church planters, church leaders and all involved in missional endeavours in the UK.

The Book of Boaz

DAVE SMITH
 Jesus and His family were asylum seekers – what welcome would they have received in modern Britain?
 ISBN 978-1-909728-17-2
 RRP £9.99

Convicted by this question, Dave Smith set up the Boaz Trust to fight the asylum seeker's cause. Battling a media that can often seem to demonise and a political class who can appear happier to scapegoat than to stand for justice, it has not been an easy fight. This is a story of how compassion and truth can inspire us all to shout for those who are too traumatised to even whisper for themselves.

Turning the Tables on Mission

Stories of Christians from the global south in the UK
 ISRAEL OLOFINJANA (ED.)
 ISBN 978-1-909728-03-5
 RRP £12.99

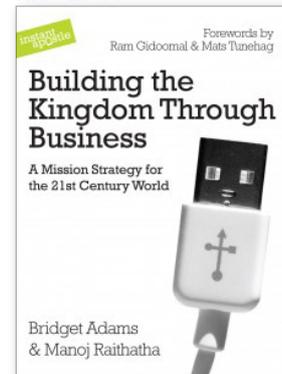

Turning the Tables on Mission documents the experiences of contemporary missionaries from the Global South coming to the UK. Their candid, personal accounts challenge many stereotypes and form a rich resource for collective learning as we seek to grow a shared identity as the people of God in what is an increasingly complex and diverse society.

Building the Kingdom Through Business

A mission strategy for the 21st century world
 BRIDGET ADAMS AND MANOJ
 RAIHATHA
 ISBN 978-0-9559135-1-8
 RRP £7.99

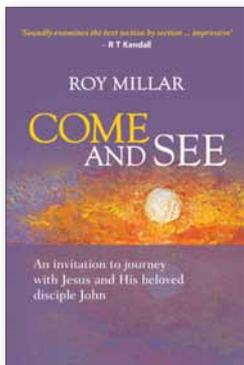

If it's business that shapes the world, then how can we use business to shape the world for good and for God?

Against the background of an international debate on business ethics and more just societies, this book looks at godly business in biblical, historical and practical ways. It includes advice on starting a business, and case studies of businesses already making a difference. There are lessons to be learned! And the world needs us to learn them.

BIBLE COMMENTARY

Come and See

An invitation to journey with Jesus and His beloved disciple John
 ROY MILLAR
 ISBN 978-1-912726-07-3
 RRP £12.99
 APRIL 2019

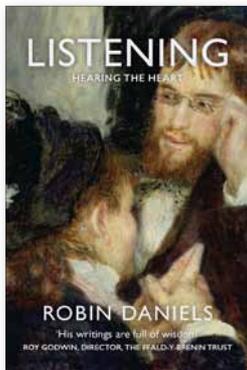

Come and See walks us through John's Gospel from beginning to end. Spread across fifty-two concise and accessible chapters that match the fifty-two weeks of the year, this perceptive commentary helps us see Jesus through John's contemporary eyes and discover anew how transformative His ministry is for our lives today.

CONTEMPLATION AND MINDFULNESS

Listening

Hearing the Heart
 ROBIN DANIELS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-74-5
 RRP £8.99
 OCTOBER 2017

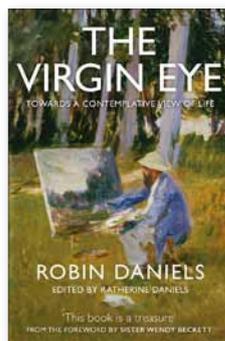

We can all hear words spoken, but how many of us can hear the heart? Listening is an essential guide to understanding the heart behind what another says and empowering the speaker to find healing. Such deep listening involves an encounter between God, self and the other, one that leads to self-discovery for both listener and speaker as they journey together.

The Virgin Eye

Towards a contemplative view of life

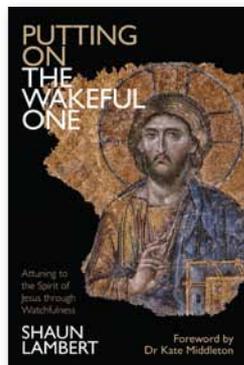

ROBIN DANIELS; EDITED BY KATHERINE DANIELS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-52-3
 RRP £9.99

The Virgin Eye inspires us to see the world with innocence, as if for the first time, so as to become more aware of God's presence in everyday life and encounters. Offering insights into contemplative prayer and mindfulness from a Christian perspective, this book teaches us to approach God, self and others with a pure heart and a pure eye.

Putting on the Wakeful One

Attuning to the Spirit of Jesus through watchfulness
 SHAUN LAMBERT
 ISBN 978-1-909728-46-2
 RRP £8.99

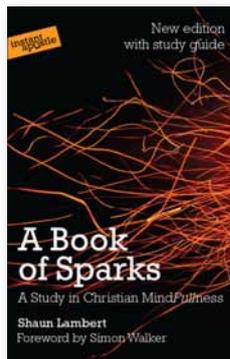

Today's postmodern world is dominated by fear, yet is open to ancient wisdom and the spiritual. How should the church respond to the opportunities this presents?

As disciples of the Wakeful One, what comfort and insight can we bring to the world around us?

Shaun Lambert shows how the Jesus of Mark's Gospel modelled watchfulness – the ancient practice of attunement to the Holy Spirit.

A Book of Sparks

A Study in Christian Mindfulness
 SHAUN LAMBERT
 ISBN 978-1-909728-15-8
 RRP £9.99

In this second edition of A Book of Sparks, Shaun Lambert offers an extended introduction into the universal human capacity for attention and awareness, known in the world of psychology as 'mindfulness'.

This new edition contains a more detailed introduction and a thought-provoking, practical study guide. It enables us to go deeper on our spiritual journey of transformation through a forty-day study examining the watchfulness modelled by Jesus in Mark's Gospel. It is an invitation to mindful reading and living.

MENTAL HEALTH

Mindful of the Light

Practical help and spiritual hope for mental health
 DR STEPHEN CRITCHLOW
 ISBN 978-1-909728-44-8
 RRP £8.99

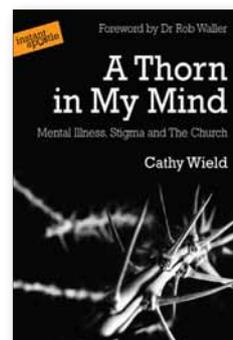

Many people live with mental health issues. How do we recognise symptoms? How can we help? Does it help to have 'faith'?

Stephen Critchlow is a Christian psychiatrist and pastor with many years' experience in the field of mental health. He draws on his rich professional knowledge to offer clear information about the causes and symptoms of a wide range of mental health problems. He shares helpful insights into everyday struggles and practical steps that can be taken, and examines the crucial role faith can play in navigating these often difficult and stormy waters.

A Thorn in My Mind

Mental Illness, Stigma and the Church
 CATHY WIELD
 ISBN 978-0-9559135-2-5
 RRP £9.99

Cathy Wield is uniquely qualified to write on the subject of mental illness as a doctor and a patient, having experienced both miraculous healing and gradual recovery from severe depression. This is her testimony to ongoing healing and maturity while learning to live with serious illness.

This book is a must read for those who have or have had a mental illness, those who know someone with a mental illness, and those who run churches or communities.

Adventures in a Foreign Land

Discovering Jesus' compassion for the mentally ill

LORRAINE GIBBARD
ISBN 978 1 909728 84 4
RRP £8.99
MARCH 2018

When Lorraine Gibbard became a Christian, she could not imagine the tumultuous journey that awaited her. A sudden onset of mental illness shattered her successful life and left her feeling lost in a foreign land. Clinging to her new-found faith, she set out on the long journey of recovery.

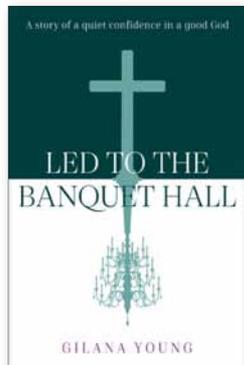

Growing daily in trust and dependence on God, Lorraine began to see how compassionately Jesus viewed those suffering mental distress. As she learnt about prayer and healing, and the nature of God's Kingdom, she was inspired to set up the Mental Health Fellowship. Supporting individuals and their carers for thirteen years, the fellowship demonstrated how mental health services and the church could work together to transform lives.

BIOGRAPHY/ MEMOIR

Led to the Banquet Hall

A story of a quiet confidence in a good God

GILANA YOUNG
978-1-912726-30-1
RRP 9.99
SEPTEMBER 2020

Tells how God brought Gilana Young out of an appallingly abusive childhood to a place at His magnificent, healing table. Over decades of faithfully sitting with and following Him, she has come to experience nine precious gifts which are available to all His children – the gift of being called, of love, of forgiveness, of relationship, of adoption, of belonging, of restoration, of life and of 'clothing'.

African Pearl

AIDS, loss and redemption in the shadow of the Rwenzori Mountains

PAMELA BROWN-PETERSIDE
978-1-912726-20-2
RRP £8.99
APRIL 2020

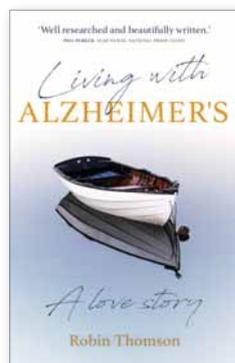

Single, burned out and on the cusp of forty, Pamela Brown-Peterside exchanges a stable US career in HIV research for the AIDS-hit valleys of Uganda. Confronted by personal illness, ever-present death and a devastating Ebola outbreak, Pamela faces uncomfortable questions of identity, sacrifice and calling. Vulnerable, inspiring and honest, Pamela's gripping account of an African returning to Africa and experiencing it as an outsider tells how she rediscovered God's grace both for herself and those she went to serve.

Living with Alzheimer's

A love story

ROBIN THOMSON
978-1-912726-19-6
RRP £8.99
JANUARY 2020

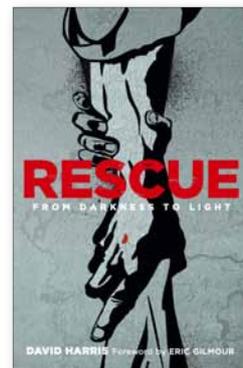

When Robin Thomson and his wife Shoko were told she had Alzheimer's, they had no idea what lay ahead. As the disease gradually took over, Robin watched his adventurous and independent wife slowly disappear. Yet Shoko's love remained constant and Robin found himself invited into a deeply spiritual journey with his wife. This honest, hope-filled account, with its practical insights, is a must-read for caregivers and the friends and families of those affected by this mysterious disease.

Rescue

From darkness to light

DAVID HARRIS
978-1-912726-16-5
RRP £7.99
JANUARY 2020

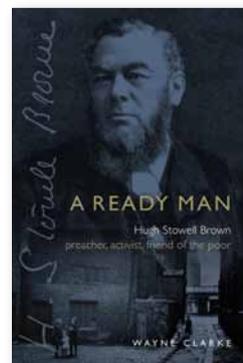

Dramatic account of how David Harris' life was transformed by a Spirit-filled encounter with Jesus Christ – an encounter available to all. Brought up as a Christian, David turned from his parents' faith to pursue a hedonistic lifestyle. But when he was suddenly brought face to face with his own mortality, things changed. Encountering the awesome reality of Christ, David was rescued from empty self-indulgence to pursue God with all he had.

A Ready Man

Hugh Stowell Brown: Preacher, Activist, Friend of the Poor

WAYNE CLARKE
ISBN 978-1-912726-08-0
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2019

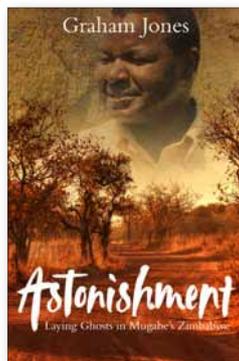

When a young man aged just twenty-three arrived in Liverpool to speak at a Myrtle Street Baptist Church, no one could guess the impact he would have on the church and the city. But for the next forty years he led that same church. This is the first biography of Hugh Stowell Brown. It's also the story of his statue, that was lost and then found and finally restored to its rightful place on the streets of Liverpool.

Astonishment

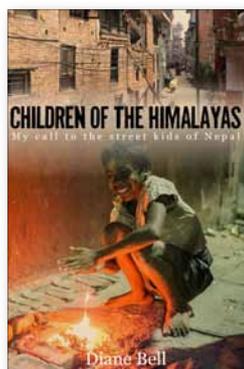

Laying Ghosts in Mugabe's Zimbabwe
GRAHAM JONES
 ISBN 978-1-912726-10-3
 RRP £8.99
 SEPTEMBER 2019

An Englishman returns to Africa after nearly forty years in a bid to recapture his carefree colonial childhood. Through a chance meeting, his life becomes entwined with that of a one-time child slave and cattle herd who's on a mission to revisit his own early life on the other side of the racial divide. A moving story of nostalgia, race, reconciliation and God's power to transform, set against the background of two brutal regimes – racist Rhodesia and Mugabe's Zimbabwe.

Children of the Himalayas

My Call to the Street Kids of Nepal
DIANE BELL
 ISBN 978-1-912726-04-2
 RRP £8.99
 APRIL 2019

On 12 December 1999, middle-aged social worker Diane Bell was stunned by a dream that would transform countless lives as she was called by God to offer family based care to street kids in Nepal. Cancer, devastating earthquakes and lurid child trafficking allegations were among the challenges she would have to overcome in making this life-giving vision a reality.

No Longer Strangers?

My Family's Experience of Seeking Asylum in the West
JAVED MASIH
 ISBN 978-1-912726-03-5
 RRP £8.99
 MARCH 2019

What is it like to seek asylum in Europe? What welcome is given and what difficulties faced? No Longer Strangers? tells the story from the inside. Caught in a system that can seem designed to keep people on the outside, Javed's account shows the strength needed to survive Europe's 'welcome' and what we can do to help.

Love Beyond

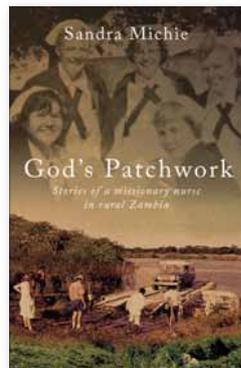

Bringing God's Love to Soho's Red-Light District
HEIDI BAUMGARTNER
 ISBN 978-1-909728-95-0
 RRP £8.99
 JANUARY 2019

Personal stories and testimonies from thirty years of working as a missionary in Soho's red-light district.

God's Patchwork

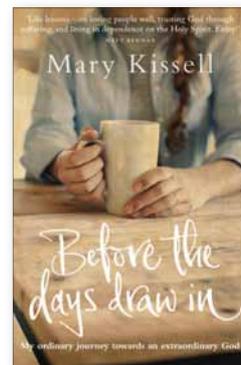

Stories of a Missionary Nurse in Rural Zambia
SANDRA MICHIE
 ISBN 978-1-909728-93-6
 RRP £8.99
 OCTOBER 2018

Working as a nurse for twenty-five years in rural Zambia, 500 miles from the nearest town, Sandra's faith was tested to the limits. And on her return to the UK, what was God doing through spells of joblessness and life-threatening ill-health? Sandra's story is one of growth, change and joy that will encourage you to know God's love in the lowest times and delight in His provision in the best.

Before the Days Draw In

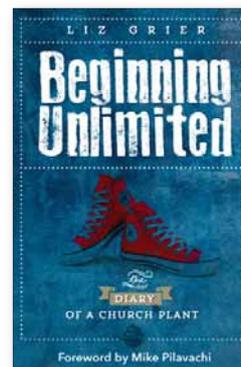

My Ordinary Journey Towards an Extraordinary God
MARY KISSELL
 ISBN 978-1-909728-91-2
 RRP £8.99
 SEPTEMBER 2018

When Mary Kissell committed to getting up early every morning to spend time in prayer, she began a practice that would revolutionise her life. This rich and moving memoir tells the incredible story of how simply following the Holy Spirit's leading saw countless people impacted around the world and the most heart-rending situations transformed.

Beginning Unlimited

The Diary of a Church Plant
LIZ GRIER
 ISBN 978-1-909728-92-9
 RRP £8.99
 SEPTEMBER 2018

Introducing: one young mum, one vicar, two small boys and a call – maybe! – to pioneer a church for young people who don't do church in Devon. Based on her journal entries, this is Liz's story as she struggles with faith, friendships, motherhood and work-life balance while embarking on the formidable challenge of pioneering a fresh expression of church. A must for all who feel challenged by God's call on their lives.

Coming Home to Dad

A journey from childhood trauma to wholeness
 AMANDA PILZ
 ISBN 978-1-909728-55-4
 RRP £8.99

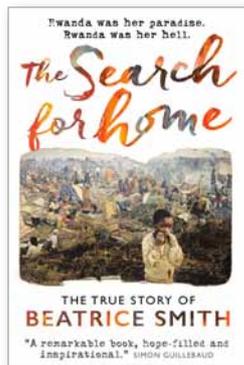

Separated from her mum at the age of six and forced to live with a harsh stepmother, Amanda quickly learnt to rely on herself. Although living under the same roof, her father was distant and uninvolved – his was a house but not a home. Eventually, sent back to live with her mum on a tough council estate, she became increasingly estranged from her dad until finally, in her eighteenth year, he disowned her.

Amanda began asking searching questions about identity which led her on a journey that culminated in an unexpected and powerful encounter with God as Father, marking the beginning of a healing process and seeing her finding her true home.

A finalist for the Woman Alive Readers' Choice Award 2018.

The Search for Home

Rwanda was her paradise. Rwanda was her hell.
 BEATRICE SMITH
 ISBN 978-1-909728-53-0
 RRP £8.99

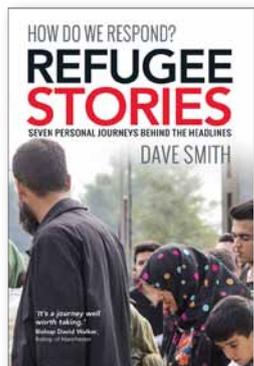

In April 1994, ten-year-old Beatrice Smith came face to face with the horrors of the Rwandan genocide as crazed machete-wielding killers burst into her family's home, lusting for blood.

Barely escaping with their lives, Beatrice and her family suddenly found themselves destitute refugees. Wandering from country to country in a desperate search for safety, they encountered moments of heart-wrenching despair and seemingly insurmountable challenge, but also witnessed God's incredible provision and miraculous rescue.

A deeply moving, faith-affirming story that gives much-needed insight into the plight of millions of refugees today.

Refugee Stories

Seven personal journeys behind the headlines
 DAVE SMITH
 ISBN 978-1-909728-48-6
 RRP £9.99

'[God] loves the foreigner residing among you' (Deuteronomy 10:18)

Refugee Stories is a collection of first-hand accounts by individuals forced to flee their countries and seek refuge in Britain. In their own words, they tell their harrowing experiences of persecution, escape and the long journey to safety.

These true stories will make you question the reception refugees receive in modern Britain and consider how the church can fulfil the biblical mandate to love the foreigners residing among us.

Complete in Him

Finding hope in disability and child loss
 CHIZOR AKISANYA
 ISBN 978-1-909728-41-7
 RRP £8.99

God promises that if we persevere through testing we will become mature and complete.

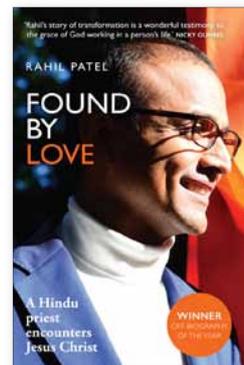

Chizor's story is a hope-giving testament to this.

Chizor Akisanya is a much-loved community leader, wife and mother whose success belies the difficulties she has faced.

In this inspirational book, Chizor leads the reader on a faith-filled journey of personal discovery. Having repeatedly experienced the truth that challenges are surmountable with the help of Christ, she encourages those facing trials of their own to find hope in Him.

Found by Love

A Hindu priest encounters Jesus Christ
 RAHIL PATEL
 ISBN 978-1-909728-42-4
 RRP £9.99

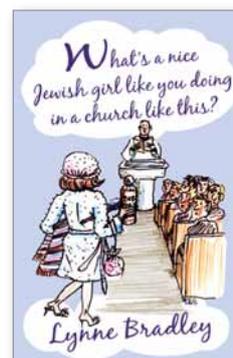

Devoted to the Hindu scriptures and committed to his faith's rituals and practices, Rahil Patel was a model priest. A brilliant academic and captivating speaker, he travelled internationally for one of the most influential Hindu organisations in the world. His spiritual counsel was received by politicians, industrialists and celebrities.

Yet Rahil felt a hunger in his heart for peace. Hoping to find a loving God, he intensified his meditations and study of the Hindu scriptures, but nothing seemed to work – until he unexpectedly encountered the risen Jesus Christ! Finally he had been found by the love he was looking for!

Winner of Christian Resources Together Biography of the Year 2017.

What's a nice Jewish girl like you doing in a church like this?

LYNNE BRADLEY
 ISBN 978-1-909728-29-5
 RRP £8.99

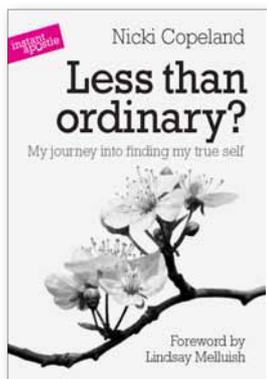

'I knew it was time to finally hang up my dancing shoes when, while preparing for the show Chicago, the only costume that fitted me had the name Ronnie Barker written inside it!'

Ballet dancer, model, performing artist, poet and Messianic Jewess – Lynne Bradley's has been no quiet life! This is the bright, frank and humorous account of how Jesus pursued her for many years before she finally turned to Him. Offering insights into the Jewish and Christian faiths, this is an honest tale of heartache and joy, dramatic healing and second chances.

Less than ordinary?

My journey into finding my true self
NICKI COPELAND
 ISBN 978-1-909728-00-4
 RRP £7.99

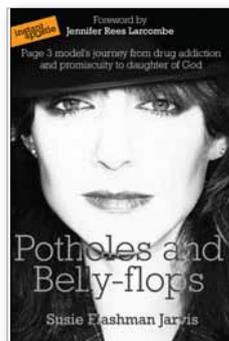

Every one of us is born with great potential. Our life experiences, personality and self-opinions shape who we become, and what we do with that potential. Some seem to effortlessly soar, while others are left grounded and feeling distinctly 'less than ordinary'.

Having struggled for much of her life with low self-esteem and lack of confidence, Nicki Copeland shares her personal journey into self-acceptance and growing belief in herself.

Potholes and Belly-flops

Page 3 model's journey from drug addiction and promiscuity to daughter of God
SUSIE FLASHMAN JARVIS
 ISBN 978-0-9559135-8-7
 RRP £9.99

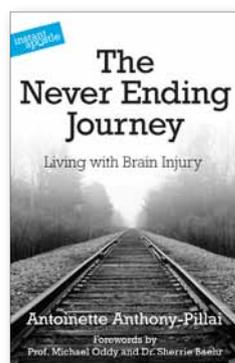

Susie was a rising star of the modelling world. Her image graced TV screens, billboards and magazine covers across the globe. But she was a private failure, addicted to Class A drugs and promiscuously jumping from one broken relationship to another. Then God...

A life transformed; a loving Father nurturing and disciplining a wilful, frightened daughter towards healing and reconciliation. A story of God invading the everyday joys and pains of family life.

The Never Ending Journey

Living with brain injury
ANTOINETTE ANTHONY PILLAI
 ISBN 978-0-9559135-6-3
 RRP £7.99

As a young, dedicated medical student, Antoinette Anthony-Pillai's future was mapped out. But when a routine operation for a tonsillectomy went horribly wrong, Antoinette's brain was starved of oxygen and her life took a dramatically different turn.

This is a moving account of Antoinette's daily struggle to cope with her condition and her fight to regain control of her life. It will be an inspiration for any who are going through difficult times.

FICTION

The Green Ink Ghost

BEN MEARS
 978-1-912726-32-5
 RRP £9.99
 NOVEMBER 2020

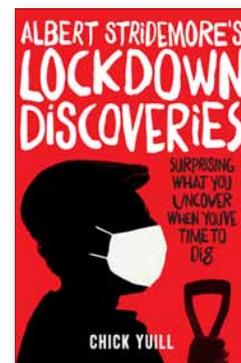

Banyard and Mingle's services are in high demand! But when a mysterious green-ink letter claims Michael Banyard's dead father was murdered, he is compelled to reopen a long-forgotten case... Pursuing a powerful, clandestine order and a missing young woman, they confront vengeful enemies and shocking truths – and then Willow, a runaway slave, bursts back into Josiah Mingle's life with deadly effect! Can they survive long enough to see the case through? And if the 'green ink ghost' is revealed, will it be too late for justice to be done?

Banyard & Mingle series, Volume II. Can also be enjoyed as a standalone novel.

Albert Stridemore's Lockdown Discoveries

Surprising what you uncover when you've time to dig
CHICK YUILL
 978-1-912726-33-2
 RRP £9.99
 NOVEMBER 2020

Seventy-five-year-old, green-fingered Albert Stridemore's carefully ordered life has been unchanged for years. Content to live alone and diligently work his allotment, he safely buries the past as he turns the soil. But with the arrival of the coronavirus and lockdown, he finds himself digging up more than just potatoes. With time to think, Albert is compelled to revisit past betrayals, even as his eyes are opened to a generous and richer world in the present.

This is award-nominated Chick's fifth novel with Instant Apostle.

To the Fourth Generation

A family's search for truth and forgiveness
CHICK YUILL
 978-1-912726-26-4
 RRP £9.99
 SEPTEMBER 2020

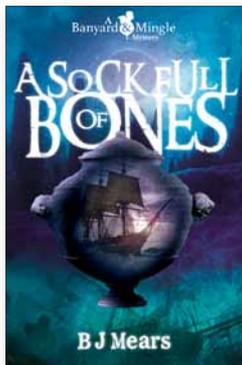

Zander Bennings' writing has brought him a lifestyle his parents and grandparents could never have imagined.

But when he is confronted with the cold reality that his success is built on a lie, he is plunged into a desperate search for truth and forgiveness. Delving into his family's past, he discovers that the men of his family have each been forced to embark upon this same unsettling quest and that, while family ties can be broken, they can never be truly severed – even to the fourth generation.

This is award-nominated Chick's fourth novel with Instant Apostle.

A Sock Full of Bones

BEN MEARS
978-1-912726-25-7
RRP £9.99
JULY 2020

Young private detectives, Banyard and Mingle, are out of money and out of luck when a swindled widow presents a life-changing case. With a treacherous shipwreck, a caged, rotting corpse, brutal smugglers and ghoulish gawpers, this is a mystery that could cost them their lives! However, in a dystopian world of slavery and greed, where silkers rule and threaders serve, it is not just the criminals they will have to fight... Can justice prevail when the law itself is corrupt?

Banyard & Mingle series, Volume 1.

All Saints?

Everything changes when secrets come to light
ELLIE CARTER
978-1-912726-21-9
RRP £8.99
JUNE 2020

Three women, three friends, three saints... or are they? Beautiful and determined Hayley, careworn and devoted Sophie, selfless but self-doubting Lucy – they share faith and unfulfilled longings as they confront painful challenges of infertility, adoption and singleness. But when temptations arise, to what lengths will each go to satisfy her desires? What will it mean to believe and what trusts will they be willing to break?

Man of Glass

When pestilence strikes, will Amalric's dreams be shattered?
ANDREA SARGINSON
978-1-912726-18-9
RRP £8.99
FEBRUARY 2020

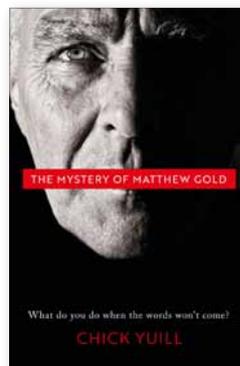

It's 1349 and a terrible plague is spreading across England. Dreading its arrival, gifted young glazing apprentice Amalric despairs of the Church's response and his village's rampant superstition – but when the gruesome pestilence arrives, he and his family are blamed. Suddenly his survival depends on the care of a shy servant girl, the village priest and a newly qualified doctor with pioneering ideas. Can the village ever come to terms with the ravages of the plague? Can Amalric hope to honour his family, and could there be hope for love?

The Mystery of Matthew Gold

What do you do when the words won't come?
CHICK YUILL
ISBN 978-1-912726-12-7
RRP £8.99
OCTOBER 2019

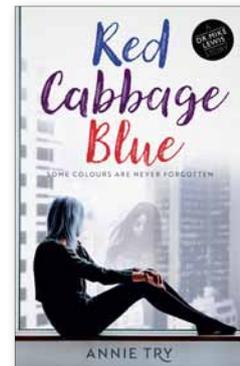

Meet Matthew Gold: wealthy, successful and secure – but totally alone. Afflicted from childhood by a crippling stammer, words have long been his biggest problem. As his talent as a writer of detective fiction emerges, however, words become his greatest passion. He might struggle to speak, but on the pages of his novels his slick-talking private eye knows all the answers. But what happens when life itself becomes a mystery you cannot solve?

From the author of Rooks at Dusk and The Man Who Broke into St Peter's.

Red Cabbage Blue

Some colours are never forgotten
A Dr Mike Lewis Story
ANNIE TRY
ISBN 978-1-912726-11-0
RRP £8.99
OCTOBER 2019

Psychologist Dr Mike Lewis is presented with the most unlikely client – twenty-two-year-old Adelle Merchant. Dressed all in blue, she could be like any other young woman. Except it's not just her clothes – her hair, her home, everything she eats or drinks has to be blue.

Seeing beyond a surface diagnosis, Mike works with Adelle to delve deeper, uncovering family secrets her over-protective mother has long suppressed.

Is it too late for the truth to come out? Are some wounds too deep to be healed? And how will pursuing the mystery affect Adelle's obsession?

Part of the Dr Mike Lewis series.

Four

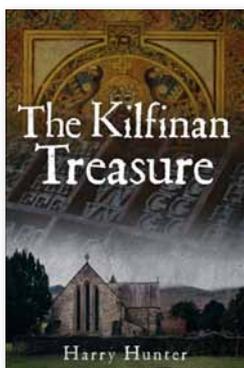

Four Anonymous Gifts. One Unforgettable Story
 JOHN GLASS
 ISBN 978-1-912726-06-6
 RRP £8.99
 APRIL 2019

When young, expat businessman Jack Troughton's girlfriend tells him about the Bible she found on a Cheltenham bench, his life is turned upside down. Challenged by Celia's faith, and brought face to face with terrifying Estonian sex-traffickers when tragedy strikes, his response impacts countless lives and threatens all he holds most dear. But Celia was not the only one to come across a Bible that day...

The Kilfinan Treasure

HARRY HUNTER
 ISBN 978-1-912726-05-9
 RRP £7.99
 MARCH 2019

Something has happened to disturb the cheery routine of Kilfinan, a bustling port on the Scottish coast. Anonymous poetic entries in the local newspaper hint at hidden treasure in the area – and the key to solving their mystery seems to lie in passages from the Bible.

The Migrant

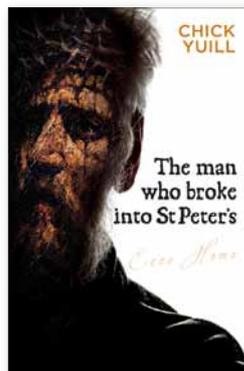

PAUL ALKAZRAJI
 When danger closes all around, where will rescue come from?
 ISBN 978-1-909728-98-1
 RRP £8.99
 FEBRUARY 2019

Fascist populists, callous sex-traffickers and murderous mafia gangs – these were not what Pastor Jude Kilburn had expected to face when he moved to Albania. But when vulnerable nineteen-year-old Alban disappears from his poverty-stricken village to seek work in Greece, Jude has to undertake the perilous journey across the mountains to try and rescue him from the ruthless Athenian underworld.

The Man Who Broke Into St Peter's

CHICK YUILL
 ISBN 978-1-909728-87-5
 RRP £8.99
 SEPTEMBER 2018

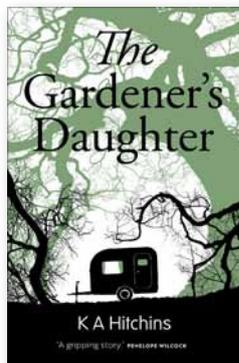

When the caretaker of St Peter's finds that the church has been broken into early on the Saturday morning after Christmas, and that the elderly intruder is still in the building and kneeling at the communion rail, no one is quite sure what to do. As his identity becomes clear and his story unfolds, long-hidden truths emerge and life in Penford can never be quite the same again...

From the author of Rooks at Dusk.

The Gardener's Daughter

K A HITCHINS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-82-0
 RRP £8.99
 MARCH 2018

Motherless nineteen-year-old Ava has always believed brilliant botanist Theo Gage to be her father. But when a chance discovery reveals she is not his daughter, her world falls apart. Determined to discover her true identity, Ava runs away. Penniless and trapped in a deadly game of cat and mouse with a ruthless criminal gang, will Ava survive? Will she discover the shocking truth behind her mother's death? And will she find her real father before it's too late?

From the author of The Girl at the End of the Road and The Key of All Unknown, both of which were finalists for the Woman Alive Readers' Choice Award 2017.

A Spring Awakening

Life Springs Up All Around, But Will the Darkness Overcome It?
 CHRIS COTTEE
 ISBN 978-1-909728-79-0
 RRP £8.99
 JANUARY 2018

David Sourbook thought he'd been saved. He thought his problems were behind him. A new life had opened up before him, with a new lady friend, a new faith and a new circle of friends.

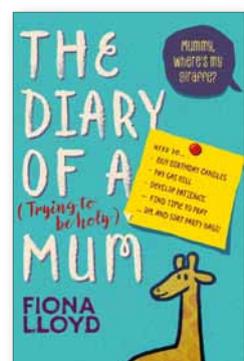

But was it really that simple? Was he stumbling towards the light – or into the night?

The compelling sequel to A Christmas Calling.

Part of the Seasons of the Soul series.

The Diary of a (Trying to be Holy) Mum

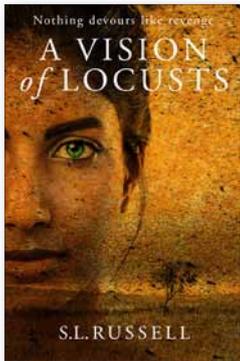

Mummy, Where's My Giraffe?
 FIONA LLOYD
 ISBN 978-1-909728-78-3
 RRP £8.99
 JANUARY 2018

Meet Becky Hudson. Loving wife and mum of three – and queen of self-doubt. Becky's diary records how God meets her in the marvellous muddle that motherhood can be as she tries to balance faith, fears and family life!

A Vision of Locusts

Nothing Devours Like Revenge
SUE RUSSELL
ISBN 978-1-909728-71-4
RRP £8.99
OCTOBER 2017

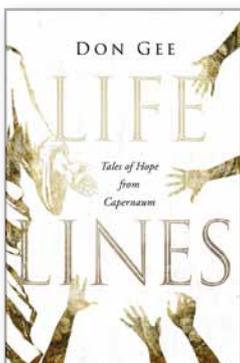

'It was like the pictures I'd seen of the battlefields of the First World War. No life, no growth ... A vision of hell.'

What can Abbie see that no one else can? Is the charming Will Chambers all he seems? And will anyone believe her?

Half-English and half-Indian, seventeen-year-old Abbie Hasan has been troubled by disturbing visions since she was a child. When her visions become reality, she is the only hope for uniting her family and redeeming a terrible betrayal. But will she find the courage to act in time?

Life Lines

Tales of Hope from Capernaum
DON GEE
ISBN 978-1-909728-72-1
RRP £8.99
OCTOBER 2017

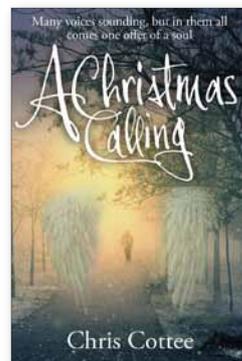

'I can't go on!' 'Life's not fair!' 'If only...' cries as common today as in Capernaum 2,000 years ago! Life Lines imagines the stories of four desperate people who reached out to Jesus in the Gospels: an abused woman, a troubled teen, a despised soldier, and a man born blind – each had needs we recognise today and each found hope when Jesus visited their town.

As Don Gee shares the fictional accounts of these characters behind the Gospel narratives, he brings Jesus' ministry into contemporary focus.

A Christmas Calling

Many Voices Sounding, But in Them All Comes One Offer of a Soul
CHRIS COTTEE
ISBN 978-1-909728-70-7
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2017

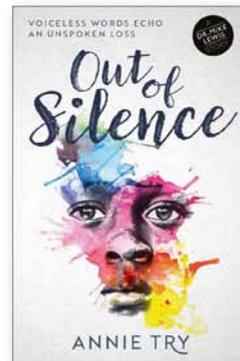

David Sourbook is a callous man. Christmas jollities and festive cheer leave him cold. This year, though, a chance encounter with a mysterious companion will herald a change. As she guides him through the town, his frozen heart begins to thaw. But when the troubling roots of his nature are laid bare, David must choose between the pitiless certainties of his dark heart and the wild, untamed joys of Christmas. A respectful but provocative reworking of Dickens' A Christmas Carol in modern clothes.

Part of the Seasons of the Soul series.

Out of Silence

Voiceless Words Echo an Unspoken Loss
ANNIE TRY
ISBN 978-1-909728-66-0
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2017

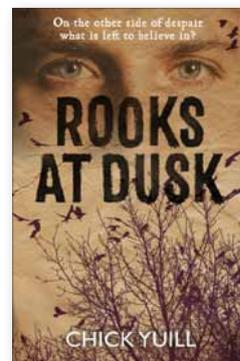

Jaded Clinical Psychologist Dr Mike Lewis is on the edge. He has separated from his wife, Ella, and is deeply wounded by the death of their child; the future is bleak. But when he is assigned the case of mute asylum seeker 'Johnny Two', things begin to change.

But then dramatic events overtake them all and force him to confront his past. Will he find courage to face it? Do he and Ella have a future? And can the silence of grief be broken?

Part of the Dr Mike Lewis series.

Rooks at Dusk

On the Other Side of Despair, What is Left to Believe In?
CHICK YUILL
ISBN 978-1-909728-65-3
RRP £8.99

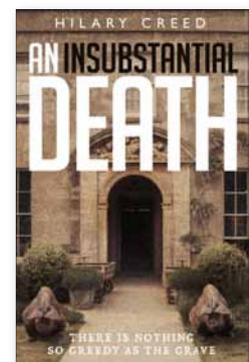

Where can a man find grace when he no longer believes? Ray Young has been married for almost thirty years. But his once vibrant faith, like his marriage, is steadily fading, and relations with his only son Ollie are increasingly strained.

Facing this looming crisis of faith, Ray begins an affair, only for Ollie to discover his father's infidelity. Confronted by his actions, Ray has one chance to rescue the life that is crumbling around him. But when tragedy strikes, it seems all hope of redemption is gone...

An Insubstantial Death

There is nothing so greedy as the grave
HILARY CREED
ISBN 978-1-909728-58-5
RRP £8.99
FEBRUARY 2017

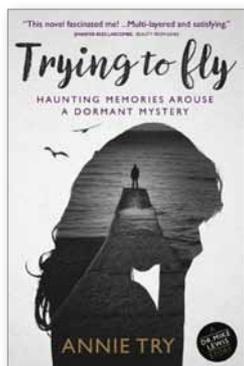

When Dame Emily sells Seascape House, her beloved Elizabethan mansion, to pork sausage magnate James Wedderburn, she witnesses the deep-seated hatred his behaviour has provoked in everyone who has crossed his path... hatred that will cost him his life.

Shocked to discover James' bloated body, Emily determines to pre-empt the police and solve the case herself. Despite finding her own life to be in danger, the intrepid Dame unpicks James' unsavoury past, seeking clues about his violent end.

Was desire for revenge behind James' sudden death? Could the killer still be at the house? Will Emily survive to find out?

Trying to Fly

Sometimes remembering can be impossible to forget
ANNIE TRY
 ISBN 978-1-909728-61-5
 RRP £8.99
 FEBRUARY 2017

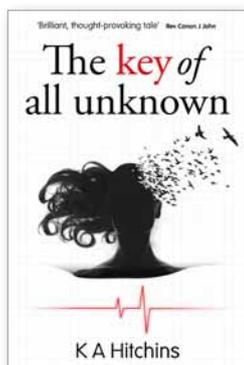

The frightening events that Jenny Drake witnessed as a girl on a Devon beach have overshadowed her life ever since. Determined to be free, she ignores her psychologist's warnings and revisits the scene. When she is overcome by fear and emotion, Jim, a local café owner, comes to her aid. Together they journey to understand what happened all those years ago and why – a search that will put their own lives in danger.

As the mystery deepens, the circle of interest quickly widens – but who can Jenny trust? Can she even believe her new friend Jim? And will she ever fly free of the past?

Part of the Dr Mike Lewis series.

The Key of All Unknown

K. A. HITCHINS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-56-1
 RRP £8.99

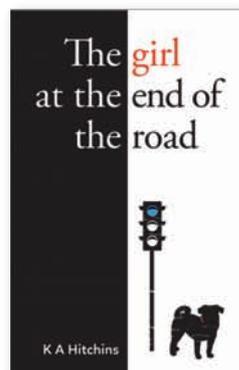

Brilliant scientific researcher Tilda Moss wakes up in hospital unable to speak or move and with no recollection of what happened to her. Determined to find answers and prove she is not in a persistent vegetative state, she travels back through her fractured memories looking for clues. Could someone really have tried to kill her? A debt-ridden younger brother, an over-helpful flatmate, jealous colleagues and a missing lover: everyone has a motive.

On the edge of death, and questioning the value of her life, Tilda's only hope is to unlock the key of all unknown. Short-listed for the Woman Alive Readers' Choice Award 2017

The Girl at the End of the Road

K A HITCHINS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-39-4
 RRP £8.99

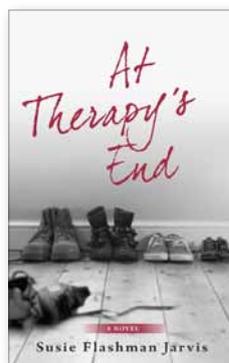

High-flying financier Vincent Stevens has lost everything in the economic crash – smart London flat, trophy girlfriend, champagne lifestyle – and is forced to return to the village of his birth. Dogged by family obligations and unsettling childhood memories, he wants his extravagant life in the City back at any cost. But then he meets Sarah, the enigmatic girl whose friendship will throw everything he values into question. A surprising discovery forces him to make the biggest decision of his life. Will he return to a world defined by winners and losers, or will he choose love? Short-listed for the Woman Alive Readers' Choice Award 2017.

At Therapy's End

SUSIE FLASHMAN JARVIS
 ISBN 978-1-909728-30-1
 RRP £8.99

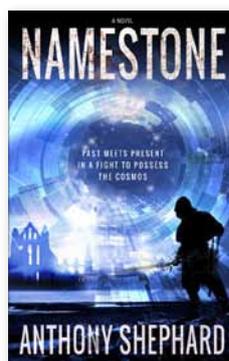

As Alfie's first birthday draws near, his mother, Sophie, and her family are forced to confront a past they have been trying to shut away for years. Revisiting painful memories, grief threatens to destroy relationships as Sophie and her daughter, Katie, wrestle with guilt, and Simon, their loving husband and father, can only look on in despair.

Grief's shadow threatens to overwhelm them all, and Sophie finds herself face to face with her abusive childhood. Will they be able to find a way through their heartache to a place of healing and peace? What will they find at therapy's end?

Namestone

Past meets present in a fight to possess the cosmos
 ANTHONY SHEPHARD
 ISBN 978-1-909728-27-1
 RRP £8.99

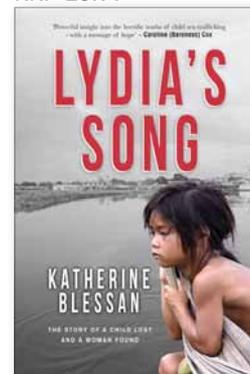

Twenty-first-century scientist Frank Scanlon and a sixteenth-century monk are thrown together by a series of horrific events. Their lives become inextricably bound up with the enigmatic Hérault – a man with exceptional fighting skills and even more deadly persuasive powers. Hérault seeks power beyond anything else, and uses evil as a practical tool to achieve his ultimate goal.

The mysterious Namestone and relics from the ancient monastery are the source and substance of immense forces, perhaps even of the cosmos itself. Loyalty, trust and friendship are stretched to their limits as Frank faces his own battle of good over evil.

Lydia's Song

The Story of a Child Lost and a Woman Found
 KATHERINE BLESSAN
 ISBN 978-1-909728-19-6
 RRP £8.99

Lydia's quiet expat life in Cambodia is dramatically turned upside down by the sudden arrival of Song, a young and vulnerable Vietnamese girl, and the flattering romantic attentions of a handsome, dashing local man. Just as she settles into this new-found happiness, everything is shattered as Song is kidnapped and sold into the child sex trade. Broken, Lydia returns to the UK, confirmed in her doubts about 'God', only to find the most unexpected guest on her doorstep one night many years later with the most incredible story to tell of hope lost and innocence restored.

YOUNG ADULT/YOUTH FICTION

Hide and Secret

Sometimes the best friends can have the worst enemies

HELEN PARKER
978-1-912726-36-3
RRP £8.99
NOVEMBER 2020

Twelve-year-old Ruth has always thought secrets should be good things – like presents or treats. But when she and her mum move from Egypt to Edinburgh, and she starts making friends at a daunting new school, she discovers just how dangerous some secrets can be. At home, who is the vulnerable refugee her mum is trying to help? And at school, what does the Somerfield gang have against Chris, and why is his little sister so unhappy?

Being Lena Levi

BOBBIE ANN COLE
ISBN 978-1-912726-09-7
RRP £8.99
SEPTEMBER 2019

It's 1950: a mysterious stranger shows up at Marlene Roberts' Canterbury home, turning her teenage world upside down. Years earlier, 'Mutti' had sent the infant Marlene to England for safety but now she wants her daughter – her 'Lena Levi' – back.

As Marlene finds her whole identity thrown into doubt, can she still trust her English 'mum'? And can she rely on the charismatic Mutti, a volatile woman deeply scarred by the horrors of Auschwitz?

For Marlene Roberts, being Lena Levi is going to be the adventure of a lifetime.

The Runaway

MARY WEEKS MILLARD
ISBN 978-1-912726-01-1
RRP £7.99
MARCH 2019

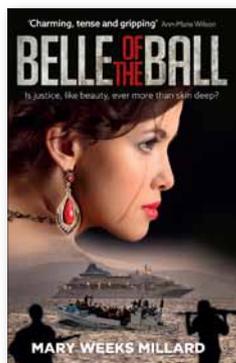

Vulnerable and in desperate need of support, Tiago will have to decide whom to trust if he is ever to stop running and discover the key to his dead father's past. But will his murderous step-father find him first? And what about the girl whose help may just have saved his life?

Belle of the Ball

Is Justice, Like Beauty, Ever More Than Skin Deep?

MARY WEEKS MILLARD
ISBN 978-1-909728-69-1
RRP £7.99
SEPTEMBER 2017

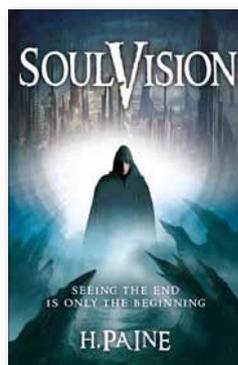

When sixteen-year-old Lydia is voted Belle of the Ball, it is the best day of her life – but it soon becomes the worst!

Left for dead by a hit-and-run driver, she awakes to scarring facial injuries and sinister questions about the accident. Discovering her father to be more than he seems and seeking to complete her recovery, Lydia escapes to a paradise island where breath-taking adventures and romance await. Thrown into the midst of a refugee crisis and a terrible storm, her faith in God is stirred when she meets a Ugandan girl fleeing trauma of her own.

Soulvision

Seeing the End is Only the Beginning
HAZEL PAINE
ISBN 978-1-907728-62-2
RRP £7.99

Silas has seen – truly seen – with Soulsight. Past the physical shell into the heart and soul. Yet now with a contagion spreading through the Unseen, and his supply of Soulsight nearly gone, how can he know who to trust? Silas must return to the Soulsight caverns, which leads him to discover a sinister conspiracy. Will the truth be enough to help his friends before it's too late? And if Soulsight can't save them, will Soulvision?

Riveting sequel to Soulsight.

Part of the Soulsight series.

Soulsight

Seeing is not always believing
HAZEL PAINE
ISBN 978-1-909728-49-3
RRP £7.99

Fitter... faster... stronger... perfection... success!

This is all Silas knows... until he meets new-girl, Zoe. What is she hiding beneath the surface, and what does she know about the mysterious Community? Will he risk everything to uncover the truth... then risk everything to protect it?

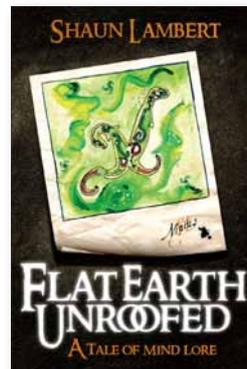

Silas' world is turned upside-down as he experiences the terror... and wonder... of SOULSIGHT.

Short-listed for the Woman Alive Readers' Choice Award 2017

Part of the Soulsight series.

Flat Earth Unroofed

A tale of mind lore
SHAUN LAMBERT
ISBN 978-1-909728-05-9
RRP £7.99

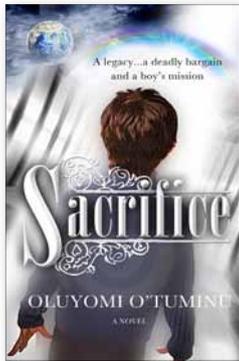

The post-apocalyptic Land of Ge is ruled by a cruel despot with dark and mysterious powers. He is prepared to ravage the land and even sacrifice his own daughter, Mimne, to stay in power.

All that stands between Mimne and certain death is her friend Hudor with his mind lore and timecraft.

Sacrifice

OLUYOMI O'TUMINU
ISBN 978-1-909728-22-6
RRP £7.99

When twelve-year-old Taifen Kollay's mum suddenly drops dead in front of him, all hope seems lost. In fulfilment of an ancient blood bargain, the dark lord Zacotan has claimed her life.

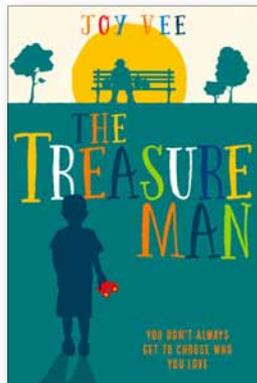

But as she lies imprisoned in Volcanus, the hellish city of the dead, Taifen is transported to the Judgment Chamber of Argoneo, mighty Ruler of the universe, to plead her case. Facing Zacotan, can Taifen reverse the consequence of this fatal bargain and ransom his mum's life? And what sacrifice will be demanded in exchange?

Sacrifice is an exhilarating adventure, with profound insights into the spiritual realms and the power of love to overcome evil.

CHILDREN'S FICTION

The Treasure Man

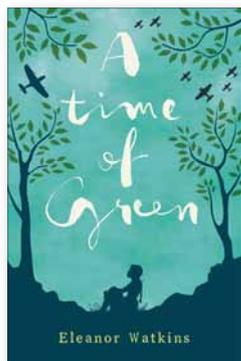

You don't always get to choose who you love
JOY VEE
978-1-912726-37-0
RRP £7.99
NOVEMBER 2020

Sienna has never noticed the homeless man near her house, until she begins to understand how precious we all are to God. As she learns to pray for him, and is encouraged at Kids' Church to listen to the Holy Spirit, she discovers God speaking in the most surprising ways. But when a big step of faith has unexpected consequences, can she learn to trust God even when she doesn't understand what He is doing? With guided questions, this is perfect to read with friends and family as you explore listening to God together.

A Time of Green

ELEANOR WATKINS
ISBN 978-1-912726-13-4
RRP £7.99
OCTOBER 2019

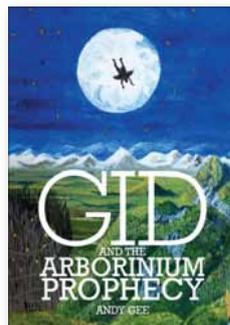

Mystery has always surrounded twelve-year-old Juniper's beloved great-grandma, June. But when June develops dementia, she determines to tell Juniper her astonishing story before it is too late.

Recording every word, Juniper finds herself immersed in the exhilarating and dangerous world her great-grandma knew as an evacuee on an isolated Welsh farm. Her tale of escaped prisoners of war and swanky American soldiers, of unlikely friendships and first loves, brings history alive for Juniper as she discovers June's incredible past!

Gid and the Arborinium Prophecy

ANDY GEE
ISBN 978-1-909728-11-0
RRP £7.99

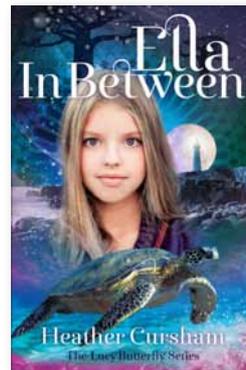

Threatened by an ancient evil, the forest city of Arborinium's last hope is a long-prophesied warrior from another realm. But no one expects that warrior to be a scruffy eleven-year-old schoolboy called Gid! Mystically transported to Arborinium, Gid must rescue its people from an oppressor with startling links to his own world.

Will Arborinium survive? Will Gid overcome treachery, darkness and self-doubt to become the warrior Arborinium needs? And will he ever learn to fly?

Ella In Between

HEATHER CURSHAM
ISBN 978-1-909728-88-2
RRP £6.99
SEPTEMBER 2018

On the eve of her thirteenth birthday, Ella is thrilled to find herself back in the enchanted kingdom! But she finds herself trapped in between two worlds and her life is in grave peril. She will need all her courage and the help of old friends and new if she is to find a way back.

The magical sequel to Lucy Butterfly: A Dream Tale and Lucy Ever After.

Part of the Lucy Butterfly series.

Lucy Ever After

HEATHER CURSHAM
ISBN 978-1-909728-43-1
RRP £6.99
MARCH 2017

Six years have passed since Lucy's magical dream adventures, and it feels like nothing more than a distant memory or a story from a book. But now her little sister is having dreams, and something is clearly very wrong. A darkness has arisen in the land and her friends in the enchanted kingdom need Lucy's help once more.

A perilous and exhilarating mission beckons;

it will stretch Lucy to her limits and challenge her to decide who she wants to be!

The sparkling sequel to Lucy Butterfly: A Dream Tale.

Part of the Lucy Butterfly series.

Lucy Butterfly

A Dream Tale

HEATHER CURSHAM

ISBN 978-1-909728-37-0

RRP £6.99

Was she awake or asleep?

It seemed so real, she couldn't be sure...

Lucy is a tenacious girl with a big imagination – but even she couldn't have dreamed this up! Soon to be celebrating her tenth birthday, she is transported in her sleep to a magical world and finds herself the hero of a daring, enchanted quest. As she falls in and out of this strange and exciting land, Lucy must become the brave adventurer she has always longed to be. Her search for answers promises to be full of new and colourful friends, secret dangers and wonderful surprises.

Will she find the courage to complete the quest?

Will she discover the three mysterious keys?

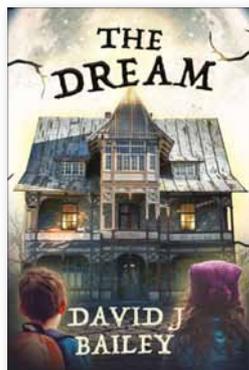

The Dream

DAVID J BAILEY

ISBN 978-1-909728-77-6

RRP £6.99

JANUARY 2018

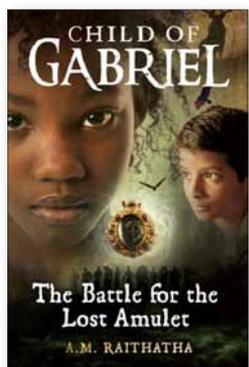

Living with a violent stepdad, and bullied at school, thirteen-year-old Oliver Carrick has a difficult and lonely life. But Oliver has a secret; for at night he is swept away in mysterious dreams of a strange, yet somehow familiar, house. When things at school go from bad to worse, Oliver runs away. Will he find the mysterious house of his dreams? And will it hold the answer to his problems?

The Battle for the Lost Amulet

A M RAITHATHA

ISBN 978-1-909728-36-3

RRP £6.99

Caring Kenya lives with her cantankerous mother and grumpy stepfather, unaware of the incredible destiny that awaits her. As a Child of Gabriel, she is one of the guardians of an ancient amulet whose fate will determine the future of her planet.

When the world was young, a mighty conflict raged between Kenya's people, the peace-loving land dwellers, and terrifying beasts of the underworld.

The land dweller guardians ended the war by shattering a magic amulet that could give the beasts power to rule. But now, the long-forgotten underworld has grown in strength. It seeks to reunite the amulet's shattered shards and conquer the world...

Can Kenya and her friend Amit find the amulet pieces and save their planet?

Ernie Gonzales

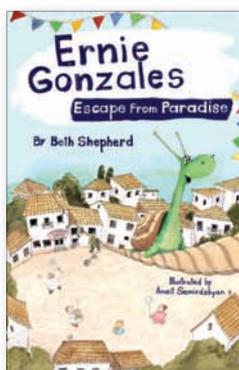

Escape from Paradise

BETH SHEPHERD. ILLUSTRATED

BY ANAIT SEMIRDZHAN

ISBN 978-1-909728-51-6

RRP £6.99

Bruce, Ernie and all the snails of Viñuela are loving life in their paradise garden. But one awful day Ernie wakes up to discover that Bruce and all the snails have gone! Local chefs have kidnapped them – to cook them in a giant snail paella! But before Ernie and his grandpa, Manuel, can do anything they get caught by terrifying thug slugs!

Will Ernie and Manuel escape from the thug slugs? Can Bruce find courage to save the snails from being eaten? Will they ever be together again?

Part of the Ernie Gonzales series.

Dreaming with Ernie

A Guided Reading, Comprehension and PSHE Workbook for Key Stage 2

BETH SHEPHERD AND DIANA

MENDONÇA

ISBN 978-1-909728-21-9

RRP £5.99

This Kids' Workbook is based on the children's novel, Ernie Gonzales: The Determined Dreamer.

Packaged as a comprehension and guided reading workbook, this resource will guide children through some of the challenges they will face and will enable them to develop some of the skills they will need when reaching for their dreams. At the same time, they will be working on curriculum-based literacy skills.

Written by the author of Ernie Gonzales together with a head of literacy and primary school teacher, this book will inspire and awaken the determined dreamer in every child. This workbook can be used to support a classroom read of Ernie Gonzales, or for independent study at home to accompany the book.

Part of the Ernie Gonzales series.

Ernie Gonzales

The Determined Dreamer
BETH SHEPHERD. ILLUSTRATED
BY LISA BUCKRIDGE
ISBN 978-0-9559135-7-0
RRP £5.99

Ernie Gonzales is a small, ordinary snail with a big, extraordinary dream!

Inspired by his Papa's tales of a legendary snail paradise, Ernie bravely sets out on a daring journey to find it. Joined along the way by the most unlikely of companions, he is soon swept up in a more dangerous and exciting adventure than he could have ever dreamed of.

Part of the Ernie Gonzales series.